Silverline Entertainment has taken on worldwide rights to the science fiction adventure film Displaced. The UK project, currently in post-production, is directed by Martin Holland and produced by Mark Strange.

Lancashire-based Skylandian Pictures produced with Chee Keong Cheung from Intense Productions as associate producer.

The film is about a humanoid alien who works with a British soldier to find top-secret information about aliens imprisoned on earth. Producer Strange stars with Malcolm Hankey, Graham Brownsmith, and Stephanie Fend; Sir Ian McKellen narrates the opening sequence.

LA-based Silverline will be representing Displaced at Berlin's European Film Market.
